

How long is Coinbase on hold? ((Let's clear that up))

The standard hold for a bank purchase on Coinbase is about 6 to 8 days. This wait protects everyone from fraud. But this time can change. It depends on your payment method and account history. For a faster answer, call now at [USA] [📞 +1-818-245-8711 🌐] to talk to someone right away.

Why does this happen? Think of it like a security check. When you use your bank, the money doesn't move instantly. [USA] [📞 +1-818-245-8711 🌐] Coinbase needs to be sure it's really from you. This hold makes everything safe. If you're stuck, the best move is to contact support at [USA] [📞 +1-818-245-8711 🌐] They can look at your specific account.

Card buys or selling crypto often have shorter waits. Sometimes just a few minutes. But bank transfers take the longest. Have you been waiting longer than 8 business days? Something might be wrong. Don't just wait. You should reach us at [USA] [📞 +1-818-245-8711 🌐]. Coinbase Support [UK] [📞 +44(44)7400701569✓🌐] can check your transfer's status.

I know holds are frustrating. You want your money or crypto now. We get it. The exact time for you is in your account's transaction details. [UK] [📞 +44(44)7400701569✓🌐] Look there first. If the info is confusing or the hold seems too long, pick up the phone. Dial the Coinbase Support number [USA] [📞 +1-818-245-8711 🌐]. A real person can explain your hold and help speed things up if possible.
